New Udret letter:

Lek

The letter on the right is a lower case lek, and the left letter is upper case. Lek in this dictionary is shown by the symbol @. @ makes a noise that is a mixture of "T", "Ch", and "L" in one sound. Over all, it sounds kind of like a slur of a clicking noise. Good luck on trying to pronounce it!

Spelling Rules:

- an "E" after a word doesn't make the vowel long.
- A "@" must always be followed by a vowel.
- "C" can only come on the beginning of a word. Otherwise it's a "K".

- "U" always comes after a "Q".
- "W" at the begging of a word cannot be followed by an "O".
- "Y" is only at the end or front of a word.
- If you add a suffix to a word that ends in "Y", drop the "Y" and then add the suffix.
- The letters "FT" Together can only be at the end of a word.

Pronunciation rules:

- "I", "E", and "A" are always said short.
- "O" is always said long.
- "U" can be said long or short, but is always long when the first letter in a word, or when after "Q".
- The "I" in "IA" and "IO" are all said short at the end of a word. The "A" and "O" are long.
- The "A" in "IA" is said short when in the middle of a word.
- "A" is long when before a "Y"
- "I" at the beginning of a word is long.

Fun Facts!

- Udret was actually the third language created after two others.
- Bukikikikiki is the longest, most popular, and easiest word to remember, which means Banana.

- The artificial language was created december 4th, 2003, but planning was long before then.
- There are about 750 udret words in this dictionary!
- All of the words are made up, and sound vaguely similar to their english words
- Some words come from other words. For example, dekapet (deposit) comes from paket (put.) look for more like that!
- Contact me any time if you want to add a word, or see an error that needs to be revised.

Learning

Techniques

- Start by learning basic words, like high frequency words.
- Use Udretian words while you are talking to practice.
- Flash cards are a good way to learn words fast.
- Don't learn too many words at once, or you might get stressed or frustrated.
- When you learn simple words, move on to nouns that you think would be useful to know.
- Don't choose words that you don't think

- you will ever use, because then it will just be a waste of time learning them.
- Then learn verbs, adjectives, etc., and soon you will be an Udret expert!

Pour apple juice half-full in the ice tray and freeze. Then fill rest with punch, cover in wrap, and insert picks into punch, and freeze again.
